

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, APRIL, 3rd. 1917.

Board met at 10 o'clock A. M. this 3rd day of April A. D. 1917, in regular session as is by law required. Roll call showing present, Commissioners Robert A. Day, Wm. A. Mc Kay, Chairman and L. B. Magor, Clerk. Commissioner Andrew W. Rasmussen absent.

Proceedings were had as follows, to-wit:-

Comes now CHARLES E. BLYDENBURGH, attorney for the Union Pacific Coal Company, and represents to the Board that in view of the International difficulties and threats that spies and fanatics sympathizing with the enemies of the United States, may blow up and destroy property of public carriers or property on which the carriers depend for fuel, etc., that it has become necessary for the Union Pacific Coal Company to appoint special guards to protect its property at Hanna in this County, and in order that these guards may have proper authority to make arrests if occasion should require, requests that the County Commissioners should appoint such proper persons as may be designated by the Union Pacific Coal Company or its officers, special Deputy Sheriffs under the provisions of Section 1222 and 1223 of the Wyoming Compiled Statutes 1910, such Deputies to be without expense to Carbon County; and the Board having considered the matter and believing that the request is reasonable:

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that it is considered that there is extraordinary and unusual danger to property of Coal Companies and public carriers within the County of Carbon, and that it is deemed necessary by said Board that special deputies should be appointed for the purpose of guarding property, owing to International complications and the threats of foreign war;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that such proper persons as may be designated by the officials of the Union Pacific Coal Company to guard its property at Hanna, be given commissions as special Deputy Sheriffs under the provisions of Section 1222 of the Compiled Statutes of Wyoming, 1910, without any expense to Carbon County; That the names to be designated shall in all cases be proper and efficient persons and shall be electors of the State of Wyoming and shall be under the control of the Sheriff of Carbon County, Wyoming. That whenever a request is made for the appointment of any such person as special deputies by the officials of the Union Pacific Coal Company, the matter shall be referred to M. E. PICKETT, the Sheriff of Carbon County, Wyoming, to pass upon such persons as to whether or not they are proper persons to receive the commissions as Deputy Sheriffs, and upon their being approved by the said Sheriff the commission shall issue, said commission to be made out by the County Clerk.

That such appointment is made without expense to Carbon County, and the County reserves the rights, as provided in said section, to at any time revoke said commissions as special deputies, such appointments being also made subject to a bond being given by each appointee as aforesaid, holding forever harmless Carbon County, Wyoming, or the Sheriff of Carbon County, Wyoming, for all damages as a result of the official acts of said appointees.
