A delegation of Tax-Payers from Encampment, Brush Creek and vicinity appeared before the Board requesting that the established roads in the District between Encampment Creek and Beaver Creek, should be maintained as public highways and not allowed to be fenced or closed, except with the consent of the Board of County Commissioners; under authority conferred by the Supreme Court of the State of Wyoming; to-wit:-

DECISION BY WYOMING SUPREME COURT.
25 Wyoming 109.

K. R. O. A. S.
HATCH BROTHERS vs BLACK.

In case from Uinta County, Wyoming, in April, 1917, In a case in which homesteaders had closed a road that had been travelled a number of years by the Public. The Supreme Court of the State of Wyoming held that that the road having been ~~xxx~~ traveled by the public for a number of years, created an easement for the purpose of a highway, even in the absence of any action by the County Commissioners and that the entry-man takes the land subject to the easement or right of way for a highway.

The effect of this decision of our Supreme Court is that it becomes a public highway just as much as though it had been formally established by the Public Authorities.

On motion by Commissioner Rasmussen and seconded by Commissioner Wood, it was ordered that all established roads in the County should not be closed, except with the consent of the Board of County Commissioners of Carbon County, Wyoming. Motion carried.
