Public notice is hereby given that at the General Election to be held in the State of Wyoming on November 7th, 1972, the following proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Wyoming will be submitted to the electors of this State for adoption or rejection, to become valid as a part of said Constitution, if ratified by a majority of said electors.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amendment to Section 1, Article 13 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. This proposed constitutional amendment provided the form of home rule and sets forth the procedures by which cities and towns may determine their own affairs.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 2

Repealed by the Special Session of the 41st Wyoming State Legislature.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 3

Amendment to Section 8, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. This amendment shall permit a Senator or Representative in the Wyoming State Legislature to accept an appointment and /or seek election to another civil office under the laws of this state, during the term for which he was elected, by submitting his resignation as a Senator or Representative prior to acceptance of any such appointment or the filing of a nomination for election to any civil office under the laws of this state.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 4

Amendment to Sections 4, 5 and 6, Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. The proposed amendment authorized the legislature to determine the number of justices of the Wyoming Supreme Court; and provides the method for selection, election, discipline, removal, and voluntary retirement of said justices and district judges and compulsory

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 5

Amendment to Sections 6 and 7, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. This proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wyoming provided that the legislature shall meet for not more than (60) legislative working days during a two-year period for either budget or general session. The legislature shall meet for no more than forty (40) legislative working days, excluding Sundays in any one (1) calendar year, except when called into special session. The legislature has the discretion to allot the period of time within the sixty day limit they shall meet during the biennium in budget or general session. The budget session may be on even-numbered years and the general and budget session shall be on odd-numbered years. In addition, it provided that during the budget session no bills except budget bills may be considered unless placed on call by a special two-thirds vote of either house.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 6

Amendment to Section 5, Article 15 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wyoming allows the counties to levy an annual tax of twelve (12) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation for all purposes plus an additional three (3) mills for county hospital purposes, whereas the present provisions of the Constitution limit counties to a levy of twelve (12) mills and do not permit an additional levy of three (3) mills for county hospital purposes.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 7

Amendment to Sections 3 and 5, Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Wyoming. The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wyoming clarifies the language in the constitution and allows the counties to create indebtedness not to exceed (2%) of the assessed value of the taxable property within such county for all purposes, plus an additional indebtedness of three per cent (3%) of assessed valuation for hospital and medical facilities, whereas the present provisions of the constitution restrict the creation of indebtedness to two per cent (2%) of the assessed value of taxable property within such county and do not allow an additional indebtedness of three per cent (3%) of assessed valuation for hospital and medical facilities.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners of Carbon County, Wyoming.
